

CONDITIONS SUBJECT TO WHICH LICENCE TO KEEP A BREEDING ESTABLISHMENT IS GRANTED

1. The accommodation for the dogs shall be in all respects suitable as to size, temperature, lighting, ventilation, cleanliness and protection from the weather for the breeds maintained.
2. All dogs must be adequately supplied with suitable food and bedding material.
3. All dogs, other than very young puppies, must have access to drinking water at all times.
4. All dogs must be visited regularly and receive sufficient exercise.
5. The passage of fire personnel must be unobstructed.
6. A responsible person shall at all times be in or near to the premises in order that necessary action can be taken in the event of fire or other emergency. In the case of lock-up premises, a responsible person living within reasonable distance from the premises shall have a key outside business hours, and the name and address of such person shall be clearly and conspicuously displayed at the front of the premises; the name and address of such person shall also be notified to the local fire service.
7. Suitable fire fighting equipment must be constantly available.
8. Dogs that are, or could be, suffering from infectious or contagious disease must be isolated from the other dogs on the premises.
9. A register shall be kept of all bitches on the establishment, giving information as to their ages, dates of heat periods, mating and whelping.
10. Where dogs are transported to or from the premises, the containers for the dogs should be suitable as to construction and size. No more than two puppies (and these should be of similar size) should be in one container. The container should have a label or labels indicating:
  - (a) That the container contains live animals.
  - (b) The name and address of the person to whom the animals are consigned.
  - (c) The upright position of the container.

The person consigning the animal(s) shall inform the recipient of the intended time of dispatch and the expected time of arrival at the destination.

11. The number of dogs which may be accommodated at any one time shall be as follows:
